September 8: "Our Videographer Blew us Away!"

The CVP Experience talks shop with Courtney & Gary

Courtney Dempsey and Gary Courtney, winners of Us and WeddingChannel.com's first ever Dream Wedding contest, are keeping a blog!

We had a wonderful experience last week meeting with Brett Culp of The CVP Experience. Brett is the personal videographer for celebs, dignitaries, professional athletes, best-selling authors, rock stars and now us! We know that we are in good hands!

What we loved about Brett the most was his focus on telling our story. He was interested in the history of our relationship and the wedding details that mattered to us the most. His goal with our wedding movie is to customize it so it reflects our tastes and personality.

His work absolutely blew us away! We watched several samples of his productions and each showcased the style of the unique weddings he has captured.
